St. Mary's Bank Celebrates the Opening of New Mortgage Center in Concord

CONCORD, NH—October 2, 2013—St. Mary's Bank, the nation's first credit union, celebrated the opening of its new Mortgage Center office in Concord with a ribbon cutting ceremony and open house. The event was hosted by St. Mary's Bank President and CEO Ronald H. Covey, attended by Concord Mayor Jim Bouley, and Timothy Sink, President of Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce.

The Concord Mortgage Center, located at 2 Pillsbury Street, Suite 101 will serve the mortgage needs of members in the Greater Concord area, the Lakes Region and the Upper Valley. The Center offers members one-stop shopping for any mortgage need, from applying for a mortgage to closing. Residential loan officers Mary Sullivan and Michael Iacopucci welcomed visitors at the Open House event, and stand ready to serve new members with a full-range of services for all their mortgage needs.

“With interest rates still near historic lows and an improving real estate market, more people are thinking about becoming first-time homebuyers, purchasing a new or second home, or interested in refinancing an existing loan,” said Karen E. Mayrand, St. Mary’s Bank director of residential lending. “Our experienced staff of loan officers can guide you through the process.”

Through St. Mary’s Bank, members can explore various programs and options based on their circumstances including competitive rates, lowering their monthly mortgage payment or shortening their mortgage term, saving thousands in interest and building their home’s equity faster.

Loan officers at the Concord center can explain various options, including government-insured programs, USDA Rural Housing initiatives, and options available for first-time home buyers.

St. Mary’s home financing process combines the expertise of its loan officers, with its on-site local processing, and its in-house title services. Members can choose from conventional fixed-rate mortgages, adjustable rate mortgages (ARMs), first-time homebuyer programs, new and “conversion” condominium financing, mixed use and non-conforming loans, jumbo loans, and more.

St. Mary’s Bank, has been recognized by New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority as one of its top participating lenders, has closed a significant number of loans to low- and moderate-income first-time homebuyers through the agency’s Single Family Mortgage Program.

For more information, or to schedule an appointment with a residential loan officer, contact the Concord Mortgage Center at 603-228-5000, or stop by the center at 2 Pillsbury Street, Suite 101.
