Dear Mr. LeBlanc:

This is in response to your request to the Past Conflict Repatriations Branch for a listing of awards to which your late brother, Private First Class Roland L. LeBlanc, is entitled for his service.

Based upon the documentation provided and information available to this office, we have verified Private First Class LeBlanc's entitlement to the following awards:

- Purple Heart
- Army Good Conduct Medal
- National Defense Service Medal
- Korean Service Medal with one Bronze Service Star
- Combat Infantryman Badge
- United Nations Service Medal
- Republic of Korea-Korean War Service Medal
- Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation

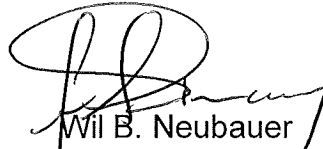

As Private First Class LeBlanc's primary next of kin you are entitled to the Gold Star Lapel Button. The Gold Star Lapel Button was established by an Act of Congress in order to provide an appropriate identification for the next of kin of members of the Armed Forces of the United States who lost their lives while engaged in action against an enemy of the United States.

All pertinent documentation, along with a memorandum listing Private First Class LeBlanc's verified awards, has been forwarded to the National Personnel Records Center for inclusion in his Army Military Human Resource Record.

The Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation is a foreign award which is not issued by the Department of the Army. If you wish to obtain this award it may be purchased from private vendors of military insignia and memorabilia; we have enclosed a listing of certified vendors for your reference. A representative from the Past Conflict Repatriations Branch will contact you to arrange for presentation of the remainder of Private First Class LeBlanc's awards in accordance with your wishes.

It is an honor to issue these awards in recognition of Private First Class LeBlanc's faithful service and ultimate sacrifice to our Nation.

Sincerely,
