To Whom It May Concern:

I am documenting this incident, at the request of Anita Lemay, regarding information voluntarily shared with me by a student.

The week of Jan 26-30, 2015 I was approached by Student "M" afterschool in my classroom with a story about an interaction with Mr. McCafferty. "M" was pulled out of class to have a meeting with Mr. McCafferty regarding math teacher, Mrs. Lemay. "M" was asked to talk about Mrs. Lemay and felt uncomfortable doing so. "M" continued to say that "M" felt coerced to speak although expressing his discomfort.

After telling of the story, I encouraged "M" to speak with Dad about the incident if "M" still felt uncomfortable. I have only learned upon documenting this that this incident happened several days prior to "M" sharing it with me and that "M's" father did indeed contact Mr. McCafferty prior to my knowledge.

Sincerely,

A Coworker
